

November 25: Read 1 Thessalonians 5, then Pray Psalm 10. The armor of God is mentioned again here, in reference to verse 6 where we are called to be alert! Just remember to keep verses 23 and 24 written upon your heart!

November 26: Available Video → 2 Thessalonians. Read 2 Thessalonians, then Pray Psalm 11. Take some extra time with chapter 2. Focus less on trying to “pin the tail on the antichrist” and more on Jesus. His side of the story is described in verses 10-12. It is always an issue of the heart.

November 27: Available Video → 1 Timothy. Read 1 Timothy 1-2, then Pray Psalm 12. It is important for us to hold 1 Timothy 2:4 close to our hearts so that the devil cannot deceive us. The lie is that God is unjust, that He is not good. The truth is that He is good, He is love, and He is doing everything to save ALL of us, despite the fact that some reject Him. Verses 5-7 carry this heart of God directly into us: we now participate in the mission!

November 28: Read 1 Timothy 3-4, then Pray Psalm 13. The word “overseer” is “episkope” in Greek, which indicates a leader over the local flock of Jesus-followers. Often rendered as “bishop” in our language, it is important to note that this word is used somewhat interchangeably with “deacon” mentioned later and in other New Testament passages. We end up rendering this word most often as “pastor” (see Ephesians 4:11-16).

November 29: Read 1 Timothy 5-6, then Pray Psalm 14. Study 1 Timothy 6:11-12 on how we are to keep “the main thing” as “the main thing” when we follow Jesus (letting His Word be the definition of all words!!!).

November 30: Available Video → 2 Timothy. Read 2 Timothy 1-2, then Pray Psalm 15. As you read 2 Timothy, pay special attention to the words related to “suffering”. At some point in following Jesus, we are called to want to want what HE wants, regardless of the cost or impact upon us. Look for that teaching in this powerful letter.

December 1: Read 2 Timothy 3-4, then Pray Psalm 16. Pray through the words in 3:5 where it says “having a form of godliness but denying its power.” This is that the core of the difference between “churchianity” (where the container is more important than the contents) and Christianity (where we trust the promises of Jesus and seek to follow Him, no matter what). Follow the discussion and context through to 3:17.
